

Murmansk: Guided trip (1 overnight stay)

Murmansk is known as the world's largest city North of the Arctic Circle, only 230 km away from Kirkenes. Here you find both, the "old" Russia and the modern Russia. Murmansk with its 310.000 inhabitants has changed a lot the last few years and you will feel these changes during your visit. The modern town Murmansk offers a wide range of restaurants, bars, shopping opportunities and more. This guided trip will give you a different and exciting experience on both sides of the border. Our guide will help you during the whole trip in any kind of questions.

DAY 1:

The tour starts from the centre of Kirkenes at 10.00 (other departure times and places on request). After 15 min we arrive at the border crossing point Storskog. There is a visa and passport control before and after crossing the Russian border. Our guide will tell you about the history and nowadays situation of the different areas we will pass. We continue through Nickel and Zapoljarnyj, cities where destruction of nature is enormous due to the Soviet mining industry. Short stop at Zapoljarnyj: possibility to take out money at the cashpoint and buy snacks. We will also pass the valley of Pechenga with its large military base and monuments from the 2nd world war.

Arriving time in Murmansk is at approximately 15.00 Russian time. City sightseeing in Murmansk: visit at Alojsa the 36 meter tall statue of "the unknown soldier", nice panorama view, visit in a church and the Kursk monument and guided trip through the town with information about shopping opportunities and restaurants. Check inn at Hotel. Evening is on your own disposal. In the evening you can choose between different restaurants with excellent food and service. Our guide will help you in any kind of questions.

DAY 2:

Breakfast at hotel.

Morning is free and you can use the time for shopping or spa treatment. Ask our guide for help. Departure from Murmansk is at 14.00 Russian time (other departure times on request). Arrival in Kirkenes at 18.00 Norwegian.
